Dear Sir/Madam:

Over the past four years I have seen Ron Sturgeon operate in several different environments: as a business advisor to private equity, as an author completing research and marketing one of his books, and as president of his newest business endeavor. Ron's personal accomplishments, creativity and passion for business have inspired me. Ron's leadership and management skills were forged through 30 years of experience as a successful entrepreneur with numerous businesses to his credit. Ron's ability to communicate his experience with a combination of folksy wit and clever insight is entertaining and informative. Ron is a "dirty fingernail operator" with an unrelenting curiosity of why things work and an understanding of how his lessons learned can be applied to a wide variety of industry. Ron's practical no-nonsense approach to advising businesses on how to improve their performance is refreshing and his unique combination of skills (operating, financial, and communication) makes him a valued business advisor as well as a great guest speaker.

Sincerely,
